

The Right to Photograph & Record in Public

Wednesday, September 16, 2015 / San Jacinto College, Pasadena TX

Supporting Sponsors
The Houston Chronicle
Vinson & Elkins
NPPA Region 8
San Jacinto College

Program Sponsors
Bill Blackwood Law Enforcement
Management Institute of Texas
Pasadena Police Department

Sponsored by the PIO Network, National Press Photographers Association and the Society of Professional Journalists/Houston

A Panel Discussion: The Right to Photograph & Record in Public

Wednesday, September 16, 7:00 – 9:00 pm (doors open at 6:30 pm)

Presented by The National Press Photographers Association

Sponsored by the Houston/Galveston Regional PIO Network and the Society of Professional Journalists/Houston Professional Chapter

An expert panel discussion regarding First Amendment rights...

- What are the rights of the people and the press to photograph and record in public?
- Can police seize and view those images or order them to be deleted?
- What is some of the most recent case law regarding these issues?
- How can we foster a better understanding of our respective rights and responsibilities in order to have a greater respect for the roles that everyone plays in newsgathering and free speech?

Journalists, bloggers, lawyers, law enforcement and first responders as well as journalism, criminal justice and law students are encouraged to attend!

Moderator: Mickey H. Osterreicher, General Counsel, National Press Photographers Association

Panelists

- Josh Bruegger: Assistant Chief, Operations Command, Pasadena Police Department
- Marc A. Fuller, Esq.: Counsel, Vinson & Elkins LLP
- Scott Kingsley: Multimedia Editor, Houston Chronicle
- Jose Luis Jiménez: Managing News Editor Houston Public Media / KUHF-FM 88.7

Parking passes are not required for this event. This is a FREE event!

Monte Blue Music Building Auditorium on the San Jacinto College Central Campus 8060 Spencer Highway, Pasadena TX (see reverse side for map and information)

Register before September 11, 2015 at <http://www.therighttophotographpanel.eventbrite.com>

For more information regarding this event, contact Houston@TheRightToPhotographInPublic.com

Vinson & Elkins LLP

The Right to Photograph & Record in Public

Wednesday, September 16, 2015 / San Jacinto College, Pasadena TX

Supporting Sponsors
 The Houston Chronicle
 Vinson & Elkins
 NPPA Region 8
 San Jacinto College

Program Sponsors
 Bill Blackwood Law Enforcement
 Management Institute of Texas
 Pasadena Police Department

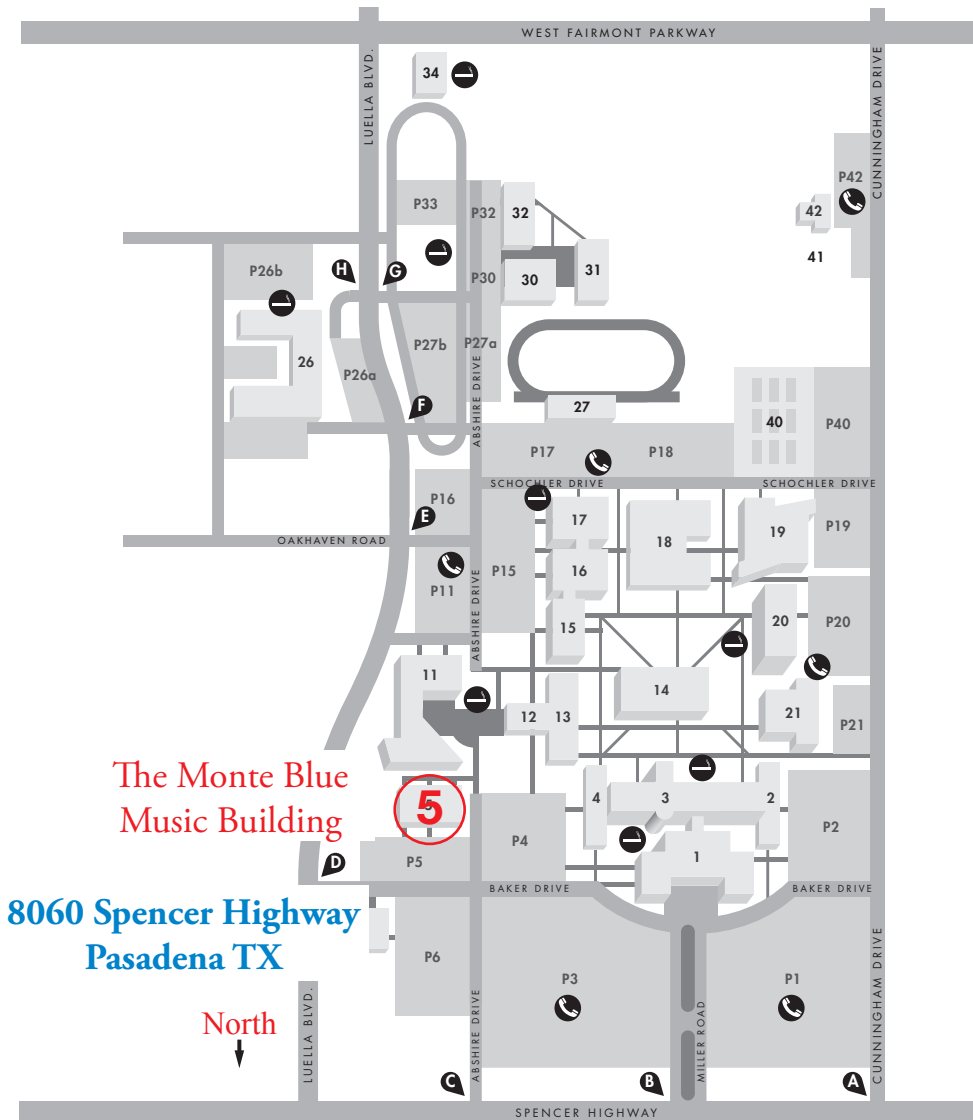

Sponsored by the PIO Network, National Press Photographers Association and the Society of Professional Journalists/Houston

The Right to Photograph and Record in Public program will take place in the Monte Blue Music Building Auditorium on the San Jacinto College Central Campus, 7:00 – 9:00 pm (doors open at 6:30 pm). It is Building #5 on this map. There is free parking in front of the building.

You must register for this program before Friday, September 11th, 2015.

No parking pass is required for this event.

- 1 Interactive Learning Center
- 2 West Classroom Building
- 3 Administration Building
- 4 East Classroom Building
- 5 Music Building
- 6 Education Center-Lab School

- 11 Health Science
- 12 Slocomb Auditorium
- 13 Fine Arts
- 14 Student Center
- 15 Davison Tech
- 16 Ball Tech
- 17 Anderson Tech
- 18 Gymnasium
- 19 Science Building
- 20 Frels Building
- 21 Library

- 26 Transportation Center
- 27 Athletic Track
- 30 Non-Destructive Testing
- 31 Technical Education
- 32 Welding and CTD
- 34 Campus Police and Maintenance
- 40 Tennis Courts
- 41 Volleyball Courts
- 42 Dormitory/Pro Shop

- X Designated Campus Entry
- ⊖ Designated Smoking Area
- ☎ Emergency Assistance Phone

The Monte Blue Music Building
 8060 Spencer Highway
 Pasadena TX

North
 ↓

The Houston/Galveston Regional PIO Network, Society of Professional Journalists–Houston Professional Chapter, The Houston Chronicle, Vinson & Elkins, NPPA Region 8, San Jacinto College, The Bill Blackwood Law Enforcement Institute of Texas, and the Pasadena Police Department are pleased to support this event and to work with NPPA to provide education and training about these important public issues.